6th International Meeting on Cell-Free DNA

The 6th International Meeting on Cell-Free DNA (cfDNA 2025)

May 8 – 9, 2025
Copenhagen, Denmark

To Potential Sponsors,

It is our great pleasure to welcome you to the 6th International Meeting on Cell-Free DNA, cfDNA2025.

In the beautiful Copenhagen, we once again meet to cover new and exciting topics in the field of cfDNA and noninvasive testing. We will present topics on prenatal care, clinical immunology, cancer diagnostics, transplantation, and the biology of cfDNA.

This meeting will provide you with an excellent overview of the field as presented by key experts, and will give you the opportunity to share knowledge, experiences and build ideas for scientific projects with your peers from the field.

The meeting will also allow for direct contact with exhibitors, offering practical demonstration of their portfolio.

Like the previous years, we will have the well-attended discussion workshop on Noninvasive Fetal Antigen Genotyping the day before the meeting, on the 7th of May.

We hope you will enjoy the cfDNA2025 meeting.
